Acquisition of Mayumana Healthcare

Asker Healthcare Group has acquired 100 per cent of the shares in Mayumana Healthcare, a leading specialist distributor of medical equipment and related supplies in the Netherlands.

“Asker holds a market-leading position in the direct-to-patient segment in the Netherlands and is continuously seeking opportunities to expand further in the hospital segment as well. Mayumana has a highly knowledgeable team and long-standing relationships as a provider of high-quality equipment to hospitals in the country. We look forward to supporting Mayumana in their continued growth journey with the combined expertise of the group”, says Johan Falk CEO Asker Healthcare Group.

Mayumana Healthcare specialises in sales of equipment within urology, gynecology, neurosurgery and oncology to hospitals in the Netherlands. The company had 13 employees and a revenue of approximately SEK 60m in 2024.
